AROUND TOWN

NEW GM AT THE SHERATON

After three years with Sheraton Miramar, Klaus Christandl has moved on to another challenge within Starwood family. Taking over as his successor is Ko Van Den Hil, a Dutch national who has collected a wealth of experience in some of the finest hotels in Europe and the Middle East. Ko Van Den Hil was the hotel manager of Westin MenaSiyahi in Dubai and he is already in the process of making a difference in the Sheraton Miramar's continuous efforts to delight their guests. Join us in welcoming Ko, his wife Cate, and little angels Max and Lauren to the El Gouna family.

NEW ARRIVALS IN KARIBE SHOP

The hidden treasure: if you're looking for special interior features such as those found in Milan or other locations in Europe, visit the exclusive interior boutique Karibe in the New Marina Plaza, now extending a 10% discount to El Gouna residents.

HANDICAP DIVING WITH EASY DIVERS

After celebrating 10 years of diving operations in El Gouna, Easy Divers Academy is proud to announce a new step in their evolution as one of their boats is now fully equipped to welcome divers with impaired mobility. The Marion spent nearly a month in dry dock in Safage and has been fully revised to be accessible to wheelchairs. It features a larger equipment deck, enlarged toilet facilities and, last but not least, an exclusive cradle system allowing safe immersion and retrieval of handicapped divers, allowing the wondrous mobile guests an opportunity to explore the lessons of the Red Sea.
